21. RISK STATEMENT

21.1 In accordance with World Sailing RRS Fundamental 3: "the responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or to continue racing is hers alone.” By participating in this event each competitor agrees and acknowledges that sailing is a potentially dangerous activity with inherent risks. These risks include strong winds and rough seas, sudden changes in weather, failure of equipment, boat handling errors, poor seamanship by other boats, loss of balance on an unstable platform and fatigue resulting in increased risk of injury. Inherent in the sport of sailing is the risk of permanent, catastrophic injury or death by drowning, trauma, hypothermia or other causes.

The OA, the RC, the IJ and the TC accept no liability for any damage to persons and/or property, both ashore and afloat, as a result of their participation in the race under these instructions. Owners and skippers on board are reminded that they shall respond personally to all accidents that can happen to their boats and/or their crews. Therefore, owners and managers will have to contract the necessary insurance to cover all risks including those from third parties. The owners and skippers are also responsible for the decision to take part in a race based on the wind strength, the sea state, and the weather forecast.

The Race, under the current regulation, has no personal assistance except in case of emergency, in which the Maritime Authority (Capitaneria di Porto) is responsible. For this reason all boats shall have a VHF radio able to transmit and receive on channels 12, 14, 16 (rescue channel), and 74.

As a consequence of a breach of behaviour or sportsmanship, the IJ may apply disciplinary actions. This shall apply during all of the event ashore and afloat. The owner or his representative is responsible for the behaviour of the crew.

COVID-19

Protocols and prescription regarding the COVID-19 may be published at any time. They will state if they have the status of a rule.

The OA may postpone or cancel the event at any time if it considers that this is required by reasons related to COVID-19. The competitors are not entitled to claim any compensation for any expenses they have incurred for their participation or preparation for participation in the event.

Notice is also hereby given to all participants including officials, volunteers, and others that they participate in this event solely at their own risk and voluntarily assume the risks associated with communicable diseases, including, but not limited to, COVID-19.

22. INSURANCE

22.1 Each participating yacht shall be insured with valid third-party liability insurance with a minimum coverage of Euro 1,500,000.00 per incident even if occurred when racing.

23. IMAGE RIGHT WAIVER

23.1 Yachts, crew members on the competing yachts grant, at no cost, OAs and their sponsors and affiliated companies the absolute right and permission to use their name, voice, image, likeness, biographical material as well as representations of the boats in any media (being television, print and internet media), including video footage, for the sole purposes of advertising, promoting, reporting and disseminating information relating to sponsors' involvement in sailing event.
